

1. Two's complement can be used to represent positive and negative integers.

(a) Convert the denary number  $-9$  into 8-bit two's complement.

1

(b) State the range of denary values that can be represented using 8-bit two's complement.

2

