

1. (a) The lowest number that can be represented in two's complement using a fixed number of bits is  $-512$ .

State the largest number that can be represented with this number of bits.

1

- (b) State the number of bits being used to provide this range of numbers.

1