

12.	(a)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• saleID is able to uniquely identify the record• The primary keys from the other two tables would not uniquely identify a car for sale.• There would be no customer number or salesPersonRef until a sale had been made and the values in a compound key cannot be left empty.	1	1 mark for any one bullet
-----	-----	---	---	---------------------------