

9. A vector graphics package is used to create a floor plan for a house as shown below.

- (a) State the object used to create the outline of the sink.

1

---

- (b) The line thickness and line colour are attributes of the lines used to draw the outside walls.

1

State one other attribute of these lines.

---