4. A software development company is working with a client that is known to modify their requirements during the development process.

Explain why the agile development methodology would be more suitable than the iterative methodology for this client. 1

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____