4.	(a)		This is the description of a persona and test case that will be used during final testing. The characteristics of the persona will be adopted by developers who perform the test case to find out how easy it was to use or on any problems encountered.	2	1 mark for description of persona and test case. 1 mark for description of how the developers would use the persona and test case during final testing of the system.